The Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost [OS 21]

–Sunday 26 August 2018

1 Kings 8.22-30, 41-43 Psalm 84

Ephesians 6.10-20; John 6.56-69

Both the writer of 1 Kings and the Psalmist focus today on God's house. How do you see your church? Is it a place where forgiveness is found? Is it a place where spending a day is better than spending a thousand elsewhere? Or is it a stained-glass fortress that exists to keep you safe from the wider community outside?

Give thanks for those churches that play an active part in their communities, and pray for those who have become a ghetto of irrelevance. May the latter find a way to take their place helping God to convert the world through love and care of the community.

Pray for the Church of the Province of Myanmar (Burma), giving thanks for the work they do to further God's mission in the world.
