The Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost [Ord. Sunday 27]

– Sunday 7 October 2018

Job 1.1; 2.1-10

Psalm 26;

Hebrews 1.1-4; 2.5-12

Mark 10.2-16

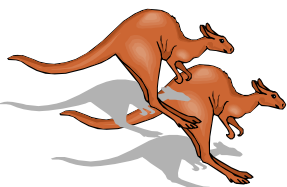

As Jesus moves further afield, his teachings, yet again, come under the scrutiny of those preoccupied with legalisms. Seeking to drive a wedge between his teachings and those of the Jewish Torah and of the state, they test him. In his retort, Jesus affirms the equality of women and men and the sanctity of their union as grounded in creation. Legalisms can be restrictive and lead to exclusion whereas the love of God transcends human boundaries. Jesus drives home the point by rebuking his disciples for their exclusion of the little children and his welcoming of them with open arms.

Pray that we may discern those inner legalisms that can lead us to exclude others from sharing in our experience of the Kingdom of God.

Pray for ABM's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander partners, giving thanks for the work they do to further God's mission in the world.
