The Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost [OS 28]

– Sunday 14 October 2018

Job 23.1-9, 16-17

Psalm 22.1-15;

Hebrews 4.12-16

Mark 10.17-31

Do I own my possessions or do my possessions own me? In responding to the young man's question of what he must do to inherit eternal life, Jesus strikes at the core of what separates this man of great wealth from experiencing fully the Kingdom of God. Not only is he unwilling to make the trade-off, he is unwilling to change his ways. What separates us from the love of God?

Pray that we may be true to ourselves and remove the things that prevent us from truly and fully living the Kingdom of God.

Pray for the Amity Foundation in China, giving thanks for the work they do to further God's mission in the world.

Eternal Hope in Jesus

Many are tired and weary
And they are longing for home,
Ready for the trumpets sound,
Yearning for rest, no more to roam.

Just a little longer, be patient friend
And heaven's gates will open wide.
Next, He'll appear at heaven's door. We'll
Exit earth's sorrows and in His home abide.

Make no mistake, He's coming.
O hear the joyous sound.
Every angel is singing praises,
Let the songs of the ages resound.

Let the sorrows of life pass over and
Eternal life wear it's crown.
Remember His love never fails us,
For, our eternal hope is heaven bound.
