The Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost [OS 29]

– Sunday 21 October 2018

Job 38.1-7 (34-41)

Psalm 104.1-10, 26

Hebrews 5.1-10

Mark 10.(32-34) 35-45

Jesus teaches the disciples a lesson through the question posed to him by Zebedee's sons. They want to be seated next to him when he comes into his glory. Jesus' response is that those seats are reserved 'for those for whom it has been prepared'. Greatness, he says, comes from service to others: 'Whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all'.

Pray that we can stop jostling for position and follow our Servant King by helping others whenever we are able.

Pray for the Anglican Church of Australia, giving thanks for all that is done in the twenty-three dioceses of our Church to further God's mission in the world.

Text: The Rev Laurette Glasgow, Special Advisor for Government Relations for the Anglican Church of Canada and the Diocese of Ottawa.

Eternal Hope in Jesus

Many are tired and weary
And they are longing for home,
Ready for the trumpets sound,
Yearning for rest, no more to roam.

Just a little longer, be patient friend
And heaven's gates will open wide.
Next, He'll appear at heaven's door. We'll
Exit earth's sorrows and in His home abide.

Make no mistake, He's coming.
O hear the joyous sound.
Every angel is singing praises,
Let the songs of the ages resound.

Let the sorrows of life pass over and
Eternal life wear it's crown.
Remember His love never fails us,
For, our eternal hope is heaven bound.
