The Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany [OS 5]

– Sunday 10 February 2019

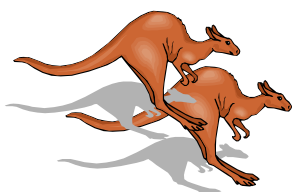

Isaiah 6.1-8 (9-13)

Psalms 138

1 Corinthians 15.1-11

Luke 5.1-11

Sometimes, when we are confronted with the raw power of God's majesty and are aware of his presence, our own feelings of inadequacy and sin can get in the way of our closeness to him. Sin is most definitely the one impediment for being close to God, but we ought always to remember that there isn't a moment in this life where God will deny someone who turns to him. Peter in today's Gospel represents all of us in our sin, begging that God goes away from him because with the awareness of God comes the awareness of our own human frailty and sin. We know very well how God used and changed St Peter's human frailty to recreate him into a glorious man of God and example to all God's people. We ought to have the faith to turn away from our sins and face God that he might do the same with us! Pray that we might unveil our hearts to God further and allow him to move and change us more deeply.

Pray that through our human frailty we might be able to understand our shared plight with others before God.

Give thanks for the Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea, remembering especially today Archbishop Allan Migi, his staff, clergy and people

ROSTERS

The current church roster will finish at the end of February. The next period will be 3 months from March through to May 2019. If you are a participant of the rosters please indicate, by either filling in the Roster Sheet in the foyer by Sunday 17 February, or by emailing Anne Carter at warkcar@inet.net.au, any dates you will be unavailable during this period.

New volunteers are welcome and needed; don't worry if you are not sure what to do as we have willing people to help you.

If you are on a particular roster and wish to be removed you will need to note it on the sheet or send Anne an email requesting removal otherwise your inclusion remains automatic.

Thank you. Anne

HAPPY BIRTHDAY in February to
