Psalms 31.9-18

Philippians 2.5-11

Luke 22.14-23

Justice? Today we find ourselves at the foot of the Cross. Jesus, our teacher and friend, has been put to an agonising death. As the great Australian poet James McAuley writes in O Jesus Crucified, How can we pass by and not care? / It was our sins that nailed him there / On the cross.

The centurion – an outsider, one of the military occupiers can see what the insiders cannot: 'Certainly this man was innocent,' he says. What justice is it for the Lamb of God?

With McAuley let us pray: 'May we die to sin and so share / The triumph he enacted there / On the cross.'

Give thanks for the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia, remembering especially the Church's Decade of Mission, 2016-2025.

Sentence

At the name of Jesus, every knee shall bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Easter Love

On Easter we celebrate love,
love coming down from heaven,
love blanketing the earth
in a transforming embrace;
unique and infinite love,
giving more than we can imagine
for us, to cleanse our sin,
a perfect sacrifice, Lamb of God,
the walking, talking Word.
He is teacher, role model, friend,
this God in human form,
dying, then rising from the dead,
proving all who believe
will also rise
to have eternal life, with Him,
Lord of all.
Oh, Happy, Happy Easter!
