Ordinary Sunday 15 [Pentecost 5]

– Sunday 14 July

Amos 7.7-17

Psalm 82

Colossians 1.1-14

Luke 10.25-37

Paul implies that the gospel is for all people, mentioning that it is being proclaimed everywhere and is changing people's lives. It proves its power in the love that people show to one another and to others – being the neighbour that Jesus challenges the lawyer (and us) to be in today's Gospel. This is extra challenging when we realise that part of the point of Jesus' story is that even our enemies are our neighbours. A Samaritan helping a Jew was about as likely as an Islamist Muslim helping a Christian! Thus, the parable is the supreme example of both love for neighbour and love for enemies.

Pray 'that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him'.

Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican

EcoCare, which is a mini-department in this Diocese of Perth, has provided its annual 'Plastic Free July' e-resource download: <http://bit.ly/pjf2019>. Readers of this pew sheet may wish to look at this.
